TIVOLI STOOL

The Tivoli Collection is a new interpretation of the traditional mid-20th century Scandinavian design. It takes advantage of new and innovative technologies in the production and bending of wooden spokes. Constructed from solid European Ash, and stocked in raw, this stunning bar chair is available finished in your choice of stains or paint, with optional upholstery on the seat.

The Tivoli Collection includes a generous armchair and dining chair also. The result is a quiet, yet characterful collection which fit both public and private interiors, with the added bonus of stacking ability for the chair and armchair.
